

COVID-19 Study Group Meeting Minutes

07/05/2020

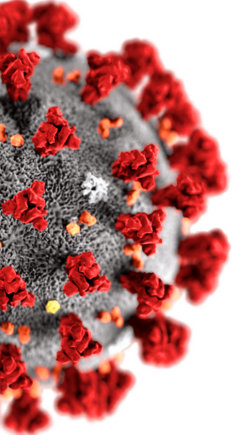

Possible Proposal Topics

- severe COVID-19 (ICU) hospitalizations in Louisville
- IL-6 levels / inflammatory response and outcomes
- viral load in patients with COVID-19
- CT value of RT-PCR
- severe COVID-19 and inflammatory response in under serve population
- viral kinetics and outcomes (Jose Bordon)
- virology polymorphism is the outcome related to the host or to the virus
- angiotensin and blood types (Rafael Fernandez)

Review of CERID COVID-19 Research Website

- COVID-19 Research Meeting Tab
 - provides access to the link which will help join the Sunday meeting
 - provides access to previous meeting notes
- Study Members Group Tab
 - provides a link to join the private workspace
 - COVID-19 WiKi to help with collaborative work on manuscripts. Login using UL email and password
 - discussed update to study group with pictures and designation of all professors/mentors and names of all participating members of the ID research coordinator team
 - discussed idea to make the working space real time, which will allow multiple authors to work at the same time.

(continued on next page)

COVID-19 Study Group Meeting Minutes

- discussed setting deadlines for secondary authors to add comments and for primary authors to complete editing the manuscripts
- discussed idea to add the most recent articles for the updated information
- Publishes Article Tab
 - Dr. Timothy Wiemken's article was published and can be added to the website.
https://www.ajicjournal.org/article/S0196-6553\(20\)30279-0/abstract30279-0/abstract)

Comments

- mentor for pregnancy and COVID-19
- paper about: implementation of the Louisville COVID-19 biorepository

Next Meeting:

- preparing the letters of intent of discussed ideas for Gilhead proposal (due on Aug 3rd) and brainstorming for different proposal ideas
- scheduled to meet with each topic leader individually during the week to review the progress